

Australian women in STEM

Research information collection sheet

Research tool - mindmap

Name _____

Overview

This document is designed for the student that prefers to arrange their findings visually using a mindmap. Use this supporting document to research as many Australian women of STEM as you like! Use one sheet for each person you investigate. Answer the questions to build your investigation and to help plan your composition. Follow the instructions to get investigating!

Instructions to plan your composition

Use the mindmap to arrange your findings as you explore the careers of great Australian women of STEM. There are four focus questions to support your research into the life and career of an Australian woman in STEM. There is also space for you to insert a photo of the person you are researching.

1 List areas of STEM interests or career?

Achievements in STEM? (awards, innovation, discoveries) 2

Name of Australian woman in STEM

Copy and paste their image here

3 What inspires you about this person?

Past or present? 4

Instructions to draft and edit your composition

Use the draft section to bring together your ideas for your composition and begin to write. Hint - Let your writing flow before editing your first draft

---

---

---

Instructions to publish your composition

Hint - have you checked your punctuation and grammar? Is your piece succinct and clear? Have you captured the essence of a great Australian woman of STEM in your word count?

---

---

---

---