Lady Eileen Hudson 1905 - 1998

- Lady Eileen Hudson made an enormous contribution to the Snowy Scheme during its construction.
- Along with her husband Sir William Hudson, the first Commissioner of the Snowy Mountains Hydro-electric Authority, Eileen worked tirelessly to promote the Scheme and give the public an understanding of its progress.
- In 1959 she was awarded an OBE in recognition of her commitment as an ambassador for the Snowy Scheme. She hosted many Australian and overseas visitors at her home in Cooma and at other locations.
- Lady Eileen, who cut the ribbon to formally open the Guthega tunnel in 1954 (see photo), was a huge support and ally for her husband, who was responsible for coordinating the construction of the biggest civil engineering project ever undertaken in Australia.
- She was also an independent, strong woman with a deep love for gardens and gardening.
- When touring the Scheme in the early days, she would always bring her gardening gloves and tools to tidy up around the work sites.
- Later she helped establish the Lady Hudson Rose Garden in Khancoban.
- Lady Eileen was also a keen single figure handicap golfer, and a member of the Cooma Golf Club from 1953-1966. During this time, she was Club Captain from 1962-1964 and Club Champion on eight occasions.

Did you know?

Lady Eileen and William Hudson once hosted the Royal Family at their home for dinner and served lamb chops, followed by tinned peaches and ice cream.
